ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

1. Competitors shall act in a positive manner, off stage, as well as on stage.
2. All contestants must have wristbands in order to compete. With the exception of Division 5, contestants must be pre-registered for the workshop to compete.
3. Contestants must report backstage and be ready to perform at their designated times. If competition is running ahead of schedule, performers should be prepared to dance early.
4. Contestants performing in more than one routine must take all of their costumes backstage before their first routine.
5. Contestants will remain backstage until their routine number is called. Your routine will be called three numbers prior to your performance. When your routine is called, you must report to the stage door, with your music, ready to perform.
6. All contestants will be escorted to the stage for award distribution. Line Captains will line up in costume backstage to receive adjudication awards. After a line captain has received the adjudication award, they will join their group on stage. After all adjudication awards are presented, placement trophies will be distributed.
7. Please make sure your contestants and Line Captains understand what is expected of them and are aware of their responsibilities.
8. Sponsor Member Teachers, Teachers of Recognition, and Chaperones are solely responsible for their contestants and spectators, and will be held accountable for the safety and the well being of the entrant during their stay at the DMC Performing Arts Competition. Sponsor Teachers, Teachers of Recognition, and Chaperones collectively assume all responsibility for entrant's behavior, class attendance, entrant's proper nourishment and that the entrant is dressed and groomed properly for various events of the competition and convention. Please take time to explain these rules and regulations to avoid point deductions or disqualification.

9. Score sheets and participation awards can be picked up at the end of the competition at the Grand Body meeting.
